

Daniel K. Inouye Institute Fund Receives $100,000 from First Hawaiian Bank Foundation

June 4, 2013 4:44 PM ET

(Honolulu, Hawaii, June 4, 2013) – The Daniel K. Inouye Institute Fund, a program of the Hawaii Community Foundation, has received a $100,000 grant from the First Hawaiian Bank Foundation, according to an announcement today by Bob Harrison, First Hawaiian Bank's president and chief executive officer. The grant will support the establishment of the Daniel K. Inouye Institute.

Through the preservation and sharing of the late U.S. Senator Daniel K. Inouye's collection of materials spanning his career as a public servant, The Daniel K. Inouye Institute will allow future generations to learn about Hawaii's greatest political leader. The Institute will be an enduring tribute and legacy to an American hero and statesman who was committed to the ideals of freedom and fairness.

The First Hawaiian Bank Foundation is the charitable arm of First Hawaiian Bank. In 2012, the Foundation and Bank contributed over $2.5 million to more than 400 non-profit organizations in Hawaii, Guam and Saipan, making it one of the largest corporate contributors to charity in the markets in which it does business. The Foundation funds educational opportunities, access to health care, services for children and youth, human service needs, and support for culture and the arts.

First Hawaiian Bank (fhb.com), with assets of $16.4 billion, was founded in 1858 and is Hawaii's oldest and largest bank. The bank operates 57 branches in Hawaii, three in Guam, and two in Saipan.

###