

First Hawaiian Bank Opens New Full-Service Branch in Kahana, Maui

October 4, 2011 3:48 PM ET

(Honolulu, Hawaii, October 4, 2011) – First Hawaiian Bank will open a new full-service branch in Kahana, Maui on Tuesday, October 11, according to an announcement by Don Horner, First Hawaiian Bank president and chief executive officer. This new full-service branch will replace a smaller branch in Napili whose last day of business will be Friday, October 7.

"I think our customers will enjoy that this new full-service branch is double the size of the Napili Branch. We've also added safe deposit boxes to this Kahana Branch location to provide our customers with even greater convenience and service." said Brian Kakihara, First Hawaiian Bank's Maui regional manager.

As part of the Kahana Branch grand opening celebration, First Hawaiian Bank will have special valuable product and service offers beginning on Tuesday, October 11. Grand opening festivities will include drawings for gift cards for Roy's Kahana, Maui Brewing, and Black Angus.

The new 1,992 square foot branch, located in Kahana Gateway Shopping Center at 4405 Honoapiilani Hwy, Suite #205, is a short distance away from the former Napili location. It will offer full-service banking as well as private banking, residential real estate financing, investments/estate planning, safe deposit boxes, night depository and an ATM. Its hours of operation will be: Monday – Thursday 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. and Fridays from 8:30 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

Napili Branch Manager Mark Nishino will serve as the Branch Manager of the new Kahana Branch. Nishino has over 22 years of financial services experienced and joined FHB in 2005. He was named Napili Branch Manager in 2009 and has been a Maui resident for eleven years.

First Hawaiian Bank (www.fhb.com) with assets of over $15 billion was founded in 1858 and is Hawaii's oldest bank. The bank operates 58 branches in Hawaii, three on Guam and two on Saipan.
